Department on Aging

Description

In 1965, Congress passed the federal Older Americans Act in response to concerns about the lack of community and social services for older individuals. As a result, Iowa created the Iowa Department on Aging (IDA). The core functions of the IDA include:

- Advocacy: Advocate for changes in public policy, practices, and programs that empower older Iowans, facilitate their access to services, and protect their rights and prevent abuse, neglect, and exploitation. Activities may include legislative advocacy, information dissemination, outreach and referral, research and analysis, and coalition building.
- Planning, Development and Coordination: Conduct planning, policy development, administration, coordination, priority setting, and evaluation of all State activities related to the objectives of the federal Older Americans Act.
- Health: Support policies, programs, and wellness initiatives to empower older Iowans to stay active and healthy, and improve their access to affordable, high-quality home and community-based services.

The IDA works closely with the “Aging Network.” This network includes six Area Agencies on Aging (AAAs) located around the State that help carry out many of the IDA’s core functions and programs. All persons age 60 and older are eligible to receive services, but federal statute requires assistance to be targeted to persons with the “greatest social or economic need.”

Services Provided

The IDA, through the Aging Network, provides a variety of services to older individuals. Examples of the services provided include:

- Adult day care.
- Caregiver support.
- Chores.
- Counseling.
- Emergency response system.
- Home-delivered meals.
- Home repair.
